Miss Sarah Martin entertained the Epworth League reading circle on Tuesday evening at her home on Jackson street. Some excellent music and refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee made the evening a most pleasant one for all present.

Col. Vince Marmaduke entertained a number of friends at the Colosseum in St. Louis last week and after the performance, the manager took them through the house and showed them behind the scenes. Wm. Jackson and wife and Miss Ethlyne were of the party.

Miss Elizabeth Hancock, of Blackburn, the guest at present of Mrs. J. W. Sparks on North St., will leave Monday for Kansas City where she will be the guest of Mrs.
E. F. Swinney and will attend the opening and dedication of Convention Hall, which will be celebrated by a concert, both afternoon and night and followed by a grand ball, Souza and his wonderful band being one of the principal attractions.

W. A. Beatty, wife and son, Pierce and Little Mildred, accompanied by H. H. Downing left Saturday for the land of sunshine and flowers. After a visit to Mrs.
Mildred Pierce and Mr. Beatty's mother at Citronelle, Alabama, they will make a visit to St. Augustine, Florida, and return by way of New Orleans. Some of us almost envy them this grand trip and especially the visit at Citronelle, with the relatives who are much missed in Marshall circles.

COUNTY NEWS.

BLACKBURN

A grand valentine reception was given by the Presbyterian ladies to the young ladies of the several different churches, who so kindly assisted them in the Old Maid's Convention, given in order to swell the Presbyterian treasury. Sixty invitations were issued, but the spacious home of Mrs. Ota Field could accommodate twice as many. At five o'clock hot Viennese sausage, saratoga flakes, salmon salad, pickles, candy and coffee were nicely served. Matching valentines was the chief amusement of the afternoon.

Dave Nelson, col'd lost his nicely furnished house by fire early Sunday morning. Dave succeeded in escaping from the burning building with frozen feet and some slight burns.
His wife also was slightly burned.

Mrs. Richmond Lillard, who has been waiting on her daughter, Mrs.
O. P. Sturm, who has been quite ill, returned from Slater Wednesday.
Rich is smiling and singing a new tune now.

A. H. Borgstadt moved his family from Sweet Springs into the Cap Jackson residence on East 3rd, Wednesday of last week. Mr. Borgstadt will do blacksmithing here in the future.

Spencer Daniels, who has been working in the Record office for sometime, returned to Gilliam, his old home, on Sunday. His many friends here regret his departure.

Gay Davis' horse becoming frightened at one of the howling town nuisances Thursday, threw its rider who sustained slight bruises from the fall.

Miss Mary Masterson, who has been making a brief visit with the Misses Rollins, returned to her home in Odessa Wednesday.

Cap. Jackson went on a deer hunt Monday. He wished to send it to his best girl as a valentine, but alas, alas, it was not found.

On account of the extremely cold weather the protracted services at the M. E. church will be discontinued indefinitely.

The Blackburn Record came out last week as the Blackburn Missouri Record with the patent discarded.

Miss Nannie Field is contemplating making a visit to her friend, Mrs.
Jones of Kansas City.

The list of sick has decreased wonderfully. Thanks to our skilled physicians.

Will Kincaid came up from Marshall Tuesday and attended the reception.

Will Flint and S. Fletcher, of Alma attended the old maids reception Tuesday.

Fred Hoffman of Sedalia was smiling on his bright particular, Sunday.

Ed Pauling shipped three cars of cattle to Chicago Wednesday.

Miss Letta Hancock spent Thursday in town.

MALTA BEND.

There will be an X Ray entertainment at the M E Church on the evening of 22 Inst. Washingtons Birthday An X Ray machine will be there, and it is to be hoped a pleasant and profitable time will be had.

Our section men were busy Monday putting in bolts that were broken by the cold weather, the boss reports more broken than at any time since the road has been built.

A train load of cattle went out from here Saturday night, the parties shipping were J. J. Shuster, H. J. Bos-ser Crum and Cliff, they went to the Chicago market.

W R Needell's sale came off on schedule time, but we have not learned how things sold. Will is in Brookfield working for the Burlington R R people.

It looks rather queer to see a person bring a load of wood to town, sell it and invest the proceeds in coal and take it home to burn, but such is done here.

S P Houston and G D Shelton were on the north side of the river last week and brought back several nice mules with them.

Mabel Wilson, after an extended visit here returned with her father T.
R. to their home near Ottawa Kan. last Friday.

Several boys have walked to the river and crossed on the ice; this is a little notority but we prefer dry land.

Ernest Fulton was in town Saturday evening, the first time for two or three months.

Some of our farmers took advantage of the cold weather and broke their stalks.

Allen Day returned home Tuesday after a three weeks visit to relatives in Iowa.

Tuesday evening a fire broke out in lower town and consumed one house.

family of S B Jeter.

Now that winter is over we hope for an early spring.

No, we are not frozen, but won't brag about it.

Etta Bennett is visiting the family of A. F. Brown.

Quite a number of our citizens are gripping.

W T German is still sawing wood.

NEW FRANKFORT.

We are sorry to report so many deaths up near Miami; mostly among the old and feeble; we note Mrs.
Wooden aged 80, Andrew Campbell 79, Jno T Davis 23, Mrs. Ellen Dobbin 60; also Henry Stevens and Mrs Wm Hummel among the many pioneers who lived in the county north of Miami only Samuel W Sullivan and Lenty Mollins remain; truly man is as the grass that groweth up in a day and is cut down.

Old mother Woolam, who died the other day counts one more of Saline's pioneers gone to the eternal home of sleep and rest. She was an indulgent mother and devoted christian. She leaves a son John and daughter, Mrs.
Benj. Mayfield, to mourn her loss.

The meeting at New Prospect Church has closed, without perceiv-able good. Where christian brethren and sisters pass each other by with looks of scorn and kettles constantly call pots' black, much good might be accomplished.

Gust Thierfelder, a prominent Frankfort farmer pays up his subscription to the Republican this week.

Olive Hoff and James Watson two of Saline's pioneers are on the sick list this week.

on the sick list.

Fair Circuit Organized.

Responding to invitations extended by Ab C. Dingle, president of the Moberly Fair association, representatives from a number of cities in North Central Missouri met in the parlors of the Merchants' hotel Tuesday afternoon and last night for the purpose of organizing a fair circuit. Organization was perfected by the election of Ab C. Dingle, of Moberly, president, and J. Kelly Pool, of Centralia, secretary and treasurer. Eight of Missouri's very best towns are included in the list, which makes one of the strongest circuits ever organized in the state.—Moberly Democrat.

Marshall Wedding.

The hour of 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning was set for a pretty home wedding at the residence of Mr. Jenkins near the college.
The morning assumed an appropriate garb for the occasion and under the most auspicious and happy indications the contracting parties met at the altar of Hymen and pledged their troth, Rev. E. E.
Morris officiating. The groom is Mr. Lewis Smith and the bride Miss Ada Levinia Smith a handsome brunette of pretty features and fair complexion. The east bound C & A 10:30 train carried them away to their future home at Memphis, the home of the groom who is one of Stoddard county's prosperous cattlemen.

Cowboy Adoration For Nordica.

Once, when Miss Nordica was singing at a concert in Texas, she forgot her warm overcoat. A cowboy, whom she had utterly fascinated, offered to bring them to her, and he did so, but he brought only one at a time. When Miss Nordica thanked him and in her gracious way regretted to have given him so much trouble, he said to her: "Don't name it, ma'am. I wish you were a centipede."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Many of the vegetables we daily use on our dinner tables were in use in Bible times. It is known, for instance, that asparagus was grown 200 years before the birth of Christ, while lettuce was cultivated so far back as 550
